Critical endnotes

Summarium

This file provides examples of critical endnote usage with reledmac. A critical note is associated with a lemma by marking it with `\edtext` and referenced by the line and page numbers of the lemma. When a critical note refers to a long lemma, we can use `\lemma` to produce an abbreviated form.

Here we use two series of critical notes.

- Each note of series A has its own paragraph.
- The notes of series B are arranged in the same paragraph.

Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit. Fusce sed dolor libero. Aenean rutrum vestibulum lacus ut pretium. Fusce et auctor lectus. Ut et commodo quam, quis gravida orci. Nullam at risus elementum, suscipit enim a, pellentesque mi. Morbi commodo, ligula vel consectetur accumsan, massa metus egestas velit, eu fringilla leo ante in turpis. Vivamus ut tellus sollicitudin, facilisis ipsum sit amet, tincidunt odio. Maecenas tincidunt dolor sed ante blandit tincidunt. Etiam vulputate ultricies facilisis.

1 A series

p.1) 1 Lorem A critical note
p.1) 1 Lorem Critical note in series A p.1) 1 Lorem Critical note in series A p.1) 1 ipsum Another critical note
p.1) 1–4 Fusce…mi Critical note pertaining to a long lemma

2 B series

p.1) 1 Lorem loram p.1) 1 ipsum Other critical note in series B p.1) 1–4 Fusce…mi omit p.1) 4 commodo quommodo p.1) 5 Vivamus Vivit